RE: Gedupeerde Bouw op Ons Christiaan Horsman

Hi Marlon,

Thanks for your email.

Unfortunately I paid a decent down-payment to this guy, Horsman, after one year of promising and providing nothing, he cancelled the contract and promised me to pay back, which didn't happen. I went to the court and got a verdict, he didn't show up and didn't answer, which costed me 4000€. I paid the bailiff to take the money from his account. Nothing was there. Also no valuable asset!

Now, if you check Google, "Bouw op ons" is permanently closed. Applying for his bankruptcy is something very costly and I'm not sure if it works. His company has no asset other than some rental offices. Accordingly to the law that was a company and Horman personally is not responsible.

The thing that I did, and I suggest you to do it, I went to police, reported it as fraud case. Apparently some more victims are there as well.

Also I emailed the police justice reporter, which I suggest you to that. This is his contact info:

Martijn Hooijer • martijn.hooijer@omroepwest.nl

I provided the police report to this guy and shared my story.

Collecting more victims will finally involve police as a fraud case which makes this guy personally liable. If you share your story and evidences we will have a stronger case. Letting them know about any new registered company can also help.

I hope we can get our money back. I'm a newbie in Netherlands. Horsman really ruined my life.

Any question please ask.

Regards

Mojtaba
